Caloric gain: zero

Gourmet Walks, a company dedicated to exploring San Francisco history and food culture on foot, is now offering the Gourmet Chocolate Tour.

Participants will stop at seven different chocolate merchants while learning about chocolate production, history and, naturally, health benefits. Tickets for these three-hour walks, which take place on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, are $48.

They're sure to sell out quickly, so book your fix at zerve.com; for more information, visit gourmetwalks.com.
